The BlueNotes

The Band of the U.S. Air Force Reserve is proud to present a swinging live show with The BlueNotes! Featuring a blend of jazz and blues with a touch of Latin spice, The BlueNotes blend traditional swing with today's rock. This nine-piece ensemble puts on an interactive show suitable for all audiences. While creatively incorporating elements of New Orleans jazz, they'll turbo-charge your experience with comedy, choreography and audience participation.

Established in January 2004, The BlueNotes were created to entertain listeners of all ages in support of our military and their families. Each musician contributes a unique style and flair that brings an element of surprise to every show. Their repertoire includes entertaining songs both old and new, and the arrangements are tailored specifically for the group's unique instrumentation. This outstanding band delivers everything you've come to expect from the Band of the U.S. Air Force Reserve and then some!

The members of The BlueNotes are professional Air Force musicians working in support of United States Air Force and Air Force Reserve recruiting and community relations objectives.
